

REQUESTS RIGHT OF WAY FOR COAL AND COKE SHIPMENTS

Priority Order Putting Fuel Ahead of Other Freight Requested

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—A general order giving coal and coke shipments the right of way over other freight movement was requested today by Fuel Administrator Garfield to relieve the country-wide fuel shortage.

Coal under the priority desired would move over railway lines with foodstuffs, shipments of which are subordinated to the transportation of actual war supplies. At present coal has no general right of way. The order would provide too for priority rights for empty coal and coke cars.

Priority for coal shipments, fuel administration officials believe would go far toward lessening congestion of coal cars at mines and terminals which many blame as the real cause of the coal shortage.

The chief obstacle to maximum production now is the slow movement of coal cars, according to officials of the national coal association who issued a statement tonight declaring there is on hand in the country at present less than a week's coal supply, and asserting that industries are facing an actual coal famine.

The mines of the country the coal association declares are operating at only 77 per cent of their capacity because they cannot ship their coal after taking it from the ground.

With the coal requirements of the northwest to a degree taken care of the fuel administration has turned its attention to the east. A formal order ending preferential coal shipments to the lakes was issued today by Mr. Lovett to become effective Nov. 30. Coal thus released will move to the midwest and to the big industrial centers of the eastern states.

WILSON PREPARING ADDRESS TO CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—President Wilson continued work today on his address for opening congress, which will be delivered in person as usual, next Tuesday.

As yet the address is in a rough draft and probably will not be printed in finished form until very shortly before delivery. On that account it probably will not be supplied very much in advance to the newspapers as is the general custom.

There have been no intimations from official sources so far of what subjects the president will emphasize. It has been his custom in a general way to confine his opening address to congress to the general state of the union and threat special subjects in special addresses. In view, however, of the many pressing subjects confronting congress, it is probable that he may refer to some of them in a special way.

ADD FOURTEEN BRITISH RONTI.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Fourteen British merchantmen of 1600 tons and over and seven of less than 1600 tons were sunk by mines or submarines last week according to the weekly admiralty statement issued this evening. This is an increase of four vessels in the large category over the number reported sunk in last week's report.

Last week's admiralty report announced the sinking of seventeen British merchant vessels—ten of more than 1600 tons and seven of less tonnage.

The week previously only one craft of 1600 tons and over and five of less tonnage were sent to the bottom.

SECRET DIPLOMATIC DOCUMENTS PUBLISHED

MANCHESTER, Eng., Nov. 28.—The Manchester Guardian's Petrograd correspondent says that among the secret diplomatic documents published by the Leninist regime was one setting forth an agreement between Russia, France and Great Britain under which Alexandria (Asia Turkey) was to be a free port and Palestine a protectorate under Russia, France and Great Britain. Great Britain was to receive a neutral zone in Persia, except Isfahan and Yazd, which were to go into the Russian sphere.

SAMMIES ABROAD WILL HAVE TURKEY

Cooks Preparing Best Dinner Ever Served for Any Army Fighting on Foreign Soil.

With the American Army in France, Tuesday, Nov. 27.—By the Associated Press.—Army cooks today began to prepare what will probably be the best dinner ever served for an army fighting on foreign soil. In every little village in France where American troops are stationed the company cooks began making cranberry sauce and laying out great piles of plump turkeys, sweet potatoes and everything else that goes to make up a real Thanksgiving dinner. There is not an American soldier who will be unable to eat to his full capacity except for a few just arrived and some officers who are unlucky enough to be stationed in out of the way places and living in hotels. As many of these as possible have been invited to messes. Even the wood cutting camps lost in the forests of France have had a share sent to them.

Tomorrow the big job of cooking dinner for an army will begin early. There was many a cook who turned in before his usual time tonight so as to get a good start. It was fully expected there would be some minor casualties and they were being looked for with pleasure.

Thanksgiving Day for the American forces will be one of resting, eating and recovering. After the dinner settles there will be real American things such as football games, in which some American stars will play.

ASSESSED VALUATION OF PROPERTY INCREASED

State Board of Equalization Adds $211,776,608 to Last Year's Figures Before Adjournment.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 28.—By increasing the assessed valuation of all lands in Illinois three per cent and by boosting other assessments, the state board of equalization before adjournment today added $211,776,608 to last year's assessed valuation of the property of the state.

The increase, which brings the total value of Illinois property up to $7,728,037,596 will have the effect, it is said, of turning into the state treasury more than half a million dollars in excess of the aggregate revenue of 1916.

For many years, it is declared, no attempt has been made to increase the total assessed valuation of state property, work of the board being confined to equalizing the valuations throughout the state among the counties. In the present report landowners are hardest hit. The three per cent blanket increase on lands will, it is estimated, boost the taxable value of land $63,971,388. Increases, for the most part slight, were ordered in town and city lots. Personal property values were allowed to remain as submitted by county assessors.

A number of the big public utility corporations of Chicago were accredited with substantial increases in valuation.

THEFTS OF EXPRESS PACKAGES MANY

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Thefts of express packages in the last eight months are said to aggregate $70,000, it was said today in connection with the arrest of eight employees of the Adams Express Company. Julius Stahl, an employee who was arrested last Sunday, is said to have confessed, leading to the other arrests. Booty valued at $40,000 has been recovered. Much of it was found according to the police, in the home of Miss Ethel Palfreman.

It included articles varying from food to phonographs and even a piano. An advertisement offering "beautiful gowns" for sale was the first clue obtained.

WOMEN CARRY GOODIES TO JACKIES

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Five automobile trucks driven by women and carrying Thanksgiving goodies, candy, cigars, cakes, cigarettes and the like—made the trip from Chicago to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station today. VILLA FOLLOWERS DYNAMITE TRAIN; DEFEAT FEDERALS

Blow Up Pay Train Killing Paymaster General Near Juarez

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 28.—Francisco Villa's followers dynamited a federal pay train, killing the paymaster general, attacked and defeated a trainload of federalists from Juarez, cut the railroad and federal telegraph lines and captured many horses and rifles Monday, according to confirmed information received late today from Mexico.

The pay train was said to have been dynamited at El Mocho, 65 miles north of Chihuahua City. General Chavez ran to the door to discover the cause of the wreck and was struck four times, one bullet penetrating his forehead and three entering his body. Of his troop escort of 70 men, thirty escaped including six wounded who were brought to Juarez late last night and given treatment at the military hospital.

On this train was said to have been $50,000 in Mexican currency and $10,000 gold which was to have been paid to the troops along the road. These sums were seized by Villa forces. After seizing the railroad station at Mocho, Villa was said to have placed an experienced railroad train dispatcher in the telegraph office and had him report the line open at that point. This resulted in the train approaching the station without warning. This is an old trick of Villa's.

The same day another band of Villa followers was reported to have engaged a train from Juarez carrying 500 troops, 170 miles south of Juarez. After a fight of five hours the federalists were forced to retire toward Mochizuma altho they drove off Villa attackers with heavy losses on both sides. They were forced to abandon their trains and cavalry horses numbering 450.

A captain named Martin Ruiz was reported killed in this fight. They telegraphed to Juarez yesterday for reinforcements and a train was sent from Juarez.

Mexican federal officials here are assured that federalists have a sufficient force in Chihuahua City to repel any attack and they said with Hernandez in close pursuit of Villa, chances of capturing the leader of the band and the annihilation of his followers are good. Villa was said to have captured three 18 millimeter cannon from the federalists recently.

EMBARGO PUT ON ALL EXPORT STEEL SHIPMENTS

The committee also ordered the diversion of all thru freight which would normally pass thru the congested gateway between the east and the west to railroads north and south of that district; the discontinuance on Dec. 1 of the fast passenger train on the Pennsylvania railroad known as the Broadway Limited and furnishing of only box and stock cars for team track loading of coal.

War News Summarized

Sunday next has been set by the Germans as the date for a conference with the Bolshevik leaders for the purpose of negotiating an armistice. The arrangement for the discussion followed a visit of representatives of the Bolsheviks to the German military authorities on the Teuton side of the fighting front in Russia. The Germans apparently gave quick acquiescence to the proposal of the Russians for an armistice looking to an ultimate peace, for only a few hours intervened between the visit of the Russians to the German line and acceptance by the Germans of the proposition that was made to them.

While the negotiations are expected to embrace an armistice "on all the fronts of the belligerent countries" it is certain that the entente allies will give no heed to the overtures, either of the Bolsheviks, who comprise the radical section of the Russians who have long desired Russia to cease fighting or of the Germans who for even a greater period of time have been endeavoring to put into operation negotiations for a peace that would prove a suitable one for themselves and their allies.

That the Bolshevik leaders are distrustful of the Germans, altho they have agreed to enter into negotiations for an armistice, is apparent from the fact that Ensign Krylenko, the Bolshevik commander-in-chief, has ordered, pending the conference, that there shall be no fraternizing on the part of the Russians and Germans and advised vigilance and caution by the troops. Meanwhile the great inter-allied conference is preparing to convene in Paris and doubtless, as it will be discussed all phases of the tangled situation in Russia and some method agreed upon to bring the disaffection to an end and permit of the Russian army taking up the gauntlet of battle again or of putting the Bolshevik element in the category of an ally of the central powers.

On the fighting front in northern France the battle between the British and Germans for points of vantage around Cambrai continued through Tuesday night but on Wednesday died down to somewhat small proportions. The Germans had brought up large numbers of reinforcements and the fighting for Bourlon village, the Bourlon wood and Fontaine Notre Dame was waged with great bitterness the positions several times changing hands.

East and northwest of Ypres violent artillery activity is in progress and on the sector of Passchendaele and it seems probable that another big battle in this region is brewing.

To the south in the vicinity of St. Quentin, north of the Aisne and in the vicinity of Verdun there have been small infantry operations with the advantage resting with the French troops.

The Italians continue to hold tenaciously to their northern frontiers against the Brenna and Piave rivers where they have been unable in repeated attacks to gain additional terrain. An armistice in order that they might bury their numerous dead has been asked by the Austrians but owing to lack of faith in the enemy's intentions the Italians refused to grant it.

Major General Maurice, chief director of military operations at the British war office upon whose official statements much importance is placed, announced that the crisis in Italy has passed.

Jerusalem is within sight of the British forces operating in Palestine, but Turks in force have been gathered about the city and it is not probable that a great battle will have to be fought for its possession.

To meet the emergency the British are hurriedly bringing additional men, guns and supplies.

Twenty-one British merchantmen were sunk by mines or submarines last week—four more in the aggregate than were sent to the bottom the previous week.

AGENTS UNCOVER NATIONWIDE PLOT OF ITALIAN 'REDS'

Laid Plans to Make Boston Center of Great Food Riots

SEATTLE, Wn., Nov. 28.—Commissioner of Immigration White asserted today that literature seized at the headquarters of Italian plotters under arrest here indicated that the men planned to seize foodstuffs in various parts of the United States. The alleged anarchistic society laid plans Mr. White said to make Boston the center of food riots, and assisted by Industrial Workers of the World encourage uprising throughout the nation.

"The people will rise and take the food where they find it," one of the seized pamphlets read, according to the authorities. Gravity of the situation and the probability of an insurrection by the people cannot be concealed," it continued.

The Italian leaders of the intrigues told their followers, federal officials said, that the state government of Massachusetts feared an uprising and furnished the Boston police with machine guns and ammunition to quell it. Other pamphlets found attacked the United States food administration officials asserted and ridiculed the efforts of the authorities to control food prices.

Confirms Seattle Reports

Boston, Nov. 28.—Agents of the department of justice confirmed reports from Seattle of the existence of an anarchistic plot to seize foodstuffs in various parts of the country. They also said that Boston was believed to have been selected as the center of the intrigue. It was their opinion that the neighboring city of Lynn was the general headquarters of the conspirators altho the ringleaders maintained their homes in Boston.

Evidence of a startling nature has been obtained according to the federal officials but has been withheld from the public pending the trial of three Lynn men who were arrested six months ago charged with conspiring to counsel young men against the selective draft act.

Federal agents said tonight that the evidence involved alleged conspirators in various parts of the country whose movements have been traced. Much information was obtained it was said from articles appearing in the Chronicle.

The belief was expressed that several persons now under arrest for violation of the draft law might be involved in the Lynn case.

In connection with the report from Seattle that Italian leaders had told their followers that Boston police had been furnished with machine guns to quell food riots, it was recalled that the state public safety committee equipped the police several months ago with rapid fire weapons to safeguard the public interest when the national guardsmen were called into federal service at the outbreak of the war.

NO LIVES LOST ON FANNIE PRESCOTT

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—No lives were lost when the American sailing ship Fannie Prescott was attacked by a submarine in European waters late in October it was learned on the return here today of Captain Holland and his entire crew of six men.

After they had abandoned their vessel the last they saw of her was when she was being towed away by the submarine. The crew was rescued after drifting about in a small boat. The schooner of 404 tons, built on her way from a Moroccan port for an unnamed destination. She was built at Stonington, Conn., in 1906 for the Atlantic Shipping Company of that place.

CHICAGO IN DARKNESS FOR SEVERAL HOURS

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Much soot coal smoke, a little fog and no breeze combined today to extend the hours of darkness for Chicago until nearly noon. The pall extended over the downtown district and for nearly four miles from the lake front. Thru the morning street car headlights and automobile searchlights were in constant use and artificial lights ruled in offices and factories.

"Nothing to get excited over," said the government forecaster. "There is not enough breeze to blow away the smoke and fog."

NO ANNOUNCEMENT.

Washington, Nov. 28.—There will be no formal announcement at present of the attitude of the United States and allied nations toward the Bolsheviks at Petrograd. The American government is waiting for official information about relations of the Bolshevik leaders with German army officers and for developments in the tangled Russian situation.

COAL MINERS THINK MONDAY A HOLIDAY

Misunderstand Governor's Proclamation Calling Attention to the Fact That Dec. 3, Illinois Begins One Hundredth Year of its Statehood.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 28.—Learning that a number of Illinois coal mines were contemplating closing down Monday under the impression that it had been made a legal holiday by his recent proclamation, Governor Lowden tonight issued the following statement to dispel this impression:

"I have learned that some misunderstanding exists as to the effect of my proclamation calling attention to the fact that on Dec. 3, Illinois begins the one-hundredth year of its statehood. This proclamation does not make that day a legal holiday nor was it intended to have such effect."

Governor Lowden's action in issuing this statement is understood to have been prompted by J. E. Williams, of Chicago, federal fuel administrator of the state, who had feared that the closing of the mines for the day might be general with the consequent cutting down of the fuel supply at a time when serious shortage is already threatened.

WOMAN FOUND IN DAZED CONDITION

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Branded on her back and breast, apparently with acid and dazed as if from drugs, Mrs. Ida Browning, aged 24 of Southauk, Ill., was found semi-conscious in the Union Station here tonight. She revived two hours later, at a hospital and told of having been kidnapped at a railroad station in South Bend, Ind., and held by a man and woman, who under the pretense of helping her had enticed her into an automobile.

The mystery surrounding the woman was intensified when she was undressed at the hospital. Pinned under the front of her waist with a crudely made dagger was a note reading: "We mean business. Beware."

COMPERS MAKES ADDRESS IN TORONTO

TORONTO, Nov. 28.—Saying that three years ago he was a "pacifist par excellence and belonged to every peace society of which he knew anything," and that he enjoyed his tranquility "with such passion" he nearly "hugged" it to death, Samuel Compers, president of the American Federation of Labor in an address here tonight stated that his writing in connection with international peace were in the hands of the printer for publication when Germany declared war, but that he found himself, "howling in the wilderness, foiled and befuddled and immediately went to the printer and got hold of that fool stuff and took it back."

American Training Camp in France, Nov. 28.—By The Associated Press.—Four new sites for American base hospitals have been selected by a group of officers who have just returned to headquarters. Work will begin on the hospitals in a few weeks. At several points the plans involve the remodeling of larger existing buildings, at others entirely new buildings will be erected under the unit system, making their indefinite expansion.

DEFENSE BLOCKS STATE'S EVIDENCE

CONCORD, N. C., Nov. 28.—First efforts of the state to introduce evidence designed to prove a motive for killing Mrs. Maude A. King, wealthy Chicago widow, at Blackwelder Spring the night of August 29, were blocked by the defense tonight at the trial of Gaston B. Means, her former business manager.

Solicitor Clement announced that the prosecution relied upon Willard J. Rockefeller, managing director of a Chicago hotel to testify that Mrs. King had told him a short time before her death that she and her estate were under the "absolute control of Means" but that she expected soon to "free herself and do as she pleased." Superior Judge Clyne ruled, however, that Rockefeller could relate to the jury only such statements as Mrs. King made to him in the presence of Means.

RELIEF JUST IN TIME.

Washington, Nov. 28.—American Red Cross relief Italian families driven from their homes by the Teutonic invasion came just in time. Despatches to headquarters here today told of the plight of the refugees and of energetic relief work carried on by the Red Cross.

THOUSANDS WERE MASSACRED

London, Nov. 28.—Half a million members of the Kirghiz tribes were massacred by agents of the Russian emperor in 1916, according to a correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, who has been traveling in Central Russia. This was punishment for a rebellion against military service by the central Asian Moslems.

NAVAL OPERATION OF U.S. MERCHANT VESSELS PLANNED

Ships Engaged in Transatlantic Service Affected by Proposal

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Naval operation of all American merchant ships engaged in Transatlantic service is planned by the government to safeguard vessels traversing the submarine zone. The proposal has the approval of Secretaries Baker and Daniels and will be adopted by the shipping board. The plan is to operate the ships with naval reserves, enlisting into the service the present officers and men of the merchant fleet. Those who don't wish to enlist would be shifted to the South American and Pacific trades, altho officials believe the great majority are ready to enter the navy service.

Naval operation of the merchant fleet has been talked of ever since the United States went to war but heretofore the shipping board has objected to naval crews for any vessels other than transports. Officials of the board, however, finally have been won over and at a conference today with war and navy department officials they endorsed the plan as the best method of getting and keeping trained and disciplined crews. It will be formally adopted probably next week.

A greater part of the American merchant marine already is engaged in overseas service and virtually all of the new ships coming from the ways will be put into trade. It is estimated that some 15,000 merchant ship officers and seamen will be taken into the naval reserve service.

The problem of pay for both officers and men has been solved by an arrangement under which owners of vessels would make up the difference between the navy pay and the present wage rate. An enlisted man in the naval reserve is paid about one third of what ordinary seamen in the merchant service now are drawing.

Merchant fleet officers also are paid now more than are naval officers in the lower commission grades. Both the shipping board and the navy department are conducting training schools and under the plan the shipping board's schools and enlistment before training would solve the problem.

More than 100,000 officers and men, it is estimated, will be needed to man the great fleet of vessels American shipyards will turn out next year. The navy department already has trained 50,000 men for the reserve service and altho many of them now are in active service, several thousand are available for merchant crews.

One Decided Advantage

One decided advantage of naval operation of the merchant fleet, pointed out tonight by officials, is that in a pinch the merchant fleet could call on the regular navy for men. The intention, however, is to use as far as possible only men in the reserve service. It is considered likely that some seamen will refuse to enter the reserves because of the fact that once in and called to active duty a man cannot resign during the war. Such men would be placed on ships in other trade routes, but eventually, it seems probable, the plan will be extended to all services and men refusing to join the reserves may be forced into the navy. Extension of the plan officials believe will work out automatically. If a ship for instance were withdrawn from the South American service for a trip thru the war zone all her officers and men would be compelled to become members of the reserves before sailing but a ship withdrawn from transatlantic service for another service would retain her naval reserve officers and crew.

Many merchant officers and men already are in the reserves but have not been called into service. The navy department's policy has been to enlist all the men it could, but where a man is performing already active sea service he has been left on the inactive list. Nationalization of the merchant fleet by using naval reserve crews will have no practical effect upon the treatment of the ships in foreign ports, as all of them will be made the crews liable to capture as prisoners of war but since the German submarines rarely undertake to carry off the prisoners the effect of this will be negligible.

LET US RETURN THANKS.

Today is the day for thanksgiving for the good that has come to us during the year just passed. It has been a year of many joys and many sorrows. The crisis in affairs of the entire world has become our own. Many families mourn our entry into the world war that has deprived them of sons who have entered the service of their country, but they can return thanks that there have been so few casualties as yet and they can hope, at any rate, for a triumphant termination.

We are thankful for the spirit of unity that permeates our community—there is but one sentiment here—loyal support of our government.

We are thankful for the bounteous crops that our farms and gardens have produced. This is an agricultural section and the prosperity of our farmers helps citizens of the town as well.

We are thankful that we have with us so many capable and useful women that are zealous in every good work, and ever ready, with minds or hands, to aid the cause of God and their country.

We are thankful that amid the world's strife that our community has been free from serious disaster or epidemic.

We are thankful that our city is assured improved streets and that a hopeful and helpful spirit prevails.

We are thankful that our city and county have shown to the world their generosity and open-heartedness in their subscriptions to the work of the Army Y. M. C. A., the Red Cross, Liberty bonds, etc.

We are thankful that men who have entered the service of our country from this vicinity are reported contented, healthy and enthusiastic.

We are thankful that the spirit of progress and good will exists in our city to the extent that it does. To see the heads of our great educational institutions (Drs. Harker and Rammelkamp) working side by side for the common good is an inspiration to all.

We are thankful that we have so many good men in the ministry of God in Jacksonville. They are always forward, not only in their churches, but in every work for the good of humanity.

We are thankful for the many loyal friends of the Journal, who have for so many years been our support. New friends make life worth living, but holding on to old ones adds greatly to its pleasure. The growth of our circulation has been steady and consistent, and to our patrons generally we acknowledge our obligation.

We are thankful for the support given the management of the Journal Co. by its employees in every department. Many have been in the office for years and to them is due a great part of the credit for what the paper is today.

We are thankful that so many, very many of the blessings and joys of this life have come to the people of our state, our county and our city, and we can only pray that the people of the nation may pass thru the present trials safely and triumphantly.

We are thankful, last but not least, that we have been permitted to live in these days, when the country is better, morally and in every way. That we have been permitted to see the changes that have come in the past few years, in our government, in our churches and in our homes.

Let us all be thankful and hopeful this Thanksgiving day.

LAWYERS VOLUNTEER.

Governor Lowden has not found it necessary to call upon lawyers of Illinois to aid draft boards in the legal aspects of the new draft regulations. Instead, hundreds of members of the Illinois bar association have offered their expert assistance to men who are required to fill out the federal questionnaire and thus establish their military liability.

FARMS FOR FIGHTING MEN.

Senator Harding's suggestion that the government revise its civil war plan of offering public land for settlement by veterans of the present war would provide a means by which the country could show in a tangible way its gratitude to the men who are serving it in the present emergency, says the St. Louis Times.

There are said to be about 500,000,000 acres of government land available for homestead purposes, and on the basis of 5,000,000 participants in the war, there would be sufficient land to give each a 100-acre farm. Of course, there would not be any such number who would want to become farmers, even though we should be called upon to place 10,000,000 men in the field, which is not likely. If there should be only half a million applicants, the government's land supply still would be 450,000,000 acres after all the soldiers had been rewarded with a homestead.

ENGLAND DOING HER PART.

The following facts from "The World's Work" for November show that England is "doing her bit":

Great Britain has 45 millions population, in contrast with 39 millions for France, 36 million for Italy, 175 million for Russia, and somewhat more than 100 million for us.

This 45 million has furnished a far larger proportion of the naval strength and shipping than any other nation, and has done this from the beginning of the war. This has also necessitated bearing most of the odium attached to the blockade which was for the general benefit of all the allies as well as England.

From the beginning, also, they have furnished more money than any other nation.

In the first two years of the war they did not furnish as many men as either France or Russia, but at present the British army in France is about as large as the French. The British have, besides an army in Egypt, another at Saloniki (as have also the French) and another in Mesopotamia. Moreover, the British Isles have furnished as many men in proportion and suffered as great losses as any of their colonies, besides putting forth an extraordinary industrial effort.

This statement by "The World's Work" should be sufficient answer to silence the persistent attack on Great Britain since the beginning of the war.

MORAL TREASON.

Col. Roosevelt does not mince words in expressing his opinion of German sympathizers in this country. "For no nation does Germany feel and express such bitter and contemptuous hostility as for the United States," he said. "There is no nation on the face of the globe which they would be more delighted to ruin and plunder. Under such circumstances the public men and newspapers engaged in defending Germany or assailing England and our other allies or in protesting against the war and demanding an inconclusive peace are guilty of moral treason to this country, and while the German American papers have achieved an evil prominence in this matter, the professional anti-English Irish papers are as bad and the purely sensational demagogic and unpatriotic section of the native American press is the worst of all."

WE THANK THEE.

We thank Thee, God, upon this day, For all that came the year to bless, The shining gold, the amber gray, Will weave a robe of righteousness.

We thank Thee for protecting arm To rest upon till morning light, A shield beneath from every harm, In lone watches of the night.

We thank Thee for the fuller life, And for Thy all-sufficient grace, That stills the mortal storm and strife And lifts the shadow from the face.

We thank Thee, for the manna fell To satisfy our daily needs; We owe Thee more than tongue can tell, And may our praise shine forth in deeds.

We thank Thee for the vision clear That sees the dawn of brighter day, And count it joy thru coming year, To sing our praises all the way.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

EATING TOO MUCH.

You're digging your grave with your teeth, you're eating your way to your doom; then some one will come with a wreath, and fasten it onto your tomb. Your stomach is weary and sore, long, long has it yearned for a rest; and still you keep throwing in more, the which you would have it digest. Go slow on your eating, I beg; the money you blow in for pies, would buy some poor cripple a leg, or fix him with vitreous eyes. Oh, list to my patient harangues, don't turn from my rede in disgust; you're digging your grave with your fangs, while millions are craving a crust. All Europe is hungry, they say; the women and children are lean; the helpless, the stricken and gray, can't find in the larder a bean. And you are devouring the rucks, consuming the doughnuts and pies; you're digging your grave with your tusks, all deaf to the hungry folk's cries. Says Hoover, "You're helping us win, by cutting out sugar and fats, by dieting till you are thin, reducing the lard on your slats." Stand up for the allies, whose flags are borne in a cause that's sublime! You're digging your grave with your snags, when eating too much is a crime.

FINE CORN EXHIBIT AT WHITE HALL BANK

Corn to be Sold Saturday at Auction For Benefit of Red Cross—Princess Theatre Closes Indefinitely—Capt. Dean Corsa Visiting Relatives—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, Nov. 28.—H. T. Johnston, who recently arrived from Wilmington, Delaware, has taken the position of night yard clerk with the C. & A. at Roodhouse, and expects to soon be located in Roodhouse. He succeeds Will Ellis in the main yards, the latter, also a White Hall man, having been transferred to a like position in the north yards.

W. H. Helm represented the local Odd Fellows at the sessions of the grand lodge in Springfield last week.

Fred Simonds, who recently arrived from Rentrow, Oklahoma, is looking for a new location, having sold the farm there, and there are very good prospects of him again becoming a resident of his old home town.

F. L. Grant has completed $30,000 worth of contract work for the working season just closing. Grant is a young contractor and has made a mark as such. His work is devoted almost exclusively to brick work.

The People's Bank Corn Show was brought to a close today, so far as entries are concerned, and the exhibit will be judged Friday and photographed. Saturday the corn will be sold at public auction for the benefit of the Red Cross. The display has been the most remarkable that has ever been seen here, and the enterprise is the result of the work of Cashier T. N. Rose. As a Red Cross benefit it will doubtless bring handsome returns, it being stipulated at the outset that all prize money is to go to this cause, leaving the winner with the valuable advertising as return for his pains at making a display.

W. C. Linder and J. E. House, two well known business men of Patterson, northwest of White Hall, were in town today.

The Princess theatre closed last Saturday night for an indefinite period, "because of the war." This is the very finest theatre property in this section of the state, and its closing has left a void in the social life of the community. On November 1st the management raised the admission fee to 15c with the levying of the war tax and along with this action came another line of amusement that temporarily drew heavily from the theatre patronage, resulting in the decision to cease operations for the present.

Capt. Dean Corsa arrived Tuesday from Leavenworth, Kansas, and will spend ten days with his family before proceeding to the French front as captain of a company of engineers. Capt. Corsa is the highest ranking officer who has gone directly from White Hall during the present war, and there naturally is unusual pride in the distinction that has come to our fellow citizen.

Mrs. Anette Chenev is expected to return from New York soon, her son, Major Charles H. Bridges, having already sailed for France. Mrs. Chenev will look after the welfare of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Higbee, 94 years of age, who is the most remarkable aged person in this section at the present time, she retaining the use of all her faculties. Mrs. Higbee's daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. H. Higbee, is here from St. Louis at the present time.

W. K. Morley, who at one time was located at Roodhouse as division superintendent of the C. & A., passed thru Roodhouse a few mornings ago on his way from Kansas City to Chicago, and requested Conductor E. S. Nichols to remember him to all old friends. Mr. Morley is held in highest regard by all who formed his acquaintance while he was located at Roodhouse. He is still in the railroad business.

Mayor R. C. Boehm announces that the engines at the city pumping station are now in first class condition, they having been thoroughly overhauled from the factory from which the machinery originally came. The city officials feel that there will be no early repetition of the disastrous closing down of the water service as was experienced a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Dennis Nash has been quite ill for several days, and the fact that there has been no improvement for the past few days caused her son, Harry Nash, to be summoned from Camp Taylor, Ky., where he is serving with the Greene county drafted men, being in a postal hospital.

W. M. Rowe, of Bloomington, called on his daughter, Mrs. H. L. Winn, Wednesday morning (and it was a mutually enjoyable meeting between him and his new granddaughter. Mr. Rowe served on a train of officer reserves that passed through Roodhouse, and during a layoff at the end of his run embraced the opportunity to run down to White Hall, his former home.

Mrs. Minnie Price left Friday of last week for Shreveport, La., to spend the winter with her son, Frank Pierce and family.

Dwight Sykes arrived home from Champaign Wednesday for a Thanksgiving visit. Miss Ida Kendall spent last week at Alton with her nephew, Eugene McKenzie, a student in the military school. There are 250 boys enrolled in the Western Military Academy this year, the largest in the history of the institution.

Lee Bridgewater returned Tuesday evening from Jacksonville, where he visited his brother, Guy Bridgewater, at Passavant hospital, the latter having his left arm amputated as the result of getting the member caught in a cornstalk chopper last Saturday while operating the machine on the Bridgewater farm, eight miles west of White Hall. The unfortunate young man is a son of Frank Bridgewater of White Hall, and managed the farm.

FRANKLIN DEFEATED PALMYRA AT BASKETBALL

Independents Won Opening Game of Season by a Score of 13 to 2—Game Was Hard Fought and Palmyra Proved a Tougher Opponent Than Anticipated.

Franklin, Nov. 28.—Franklin's independent basketball team won its opening game of the season from Palmyra in Marquette hall tonight by a score of 13 to 2. The game was hard fought from start to finish and Palmyra's strength in defensive playing surprised the Franklin team.

The game was witnessed by a good crowd and the Franklin team looks to be as fast as in former years. The main point makers for Franklin were Teaney and Luttrell. Coleman and Hall scored. Palmyra's only points with two free throws. Franklin would like to get a game for next week.

AN AGED EQUESTRIENNE

The venerable Mrs. Mary Gibson, better known to everybody as "Grandma" Gibson of Franklin has been visiting her son, R. Y. Gibson, five miles southeast of the city. She is 88 years of age but in her younger days was quite a horseback rider and while at the home of her son she saw the children with their saddle pony and the old feeling came over her and she said she wanted a pony back ride. Her relatives were a bit doubtful of the experiment but Grandma said she would risk it and felt safe in the attempt so the saddle was adjusted and the old lady took quite a ride arriving safely back, somewhat to the relief of the family.

THANKSGIVING DAY OBSERVED IN SCHOOLS

FORMAL AND INFORMAL PROGRAMS ENTERTAIN AND INSTRUCT

Some Schools Enjoy Special Exercises in Token of Day While Others by Song and Story in Class Room Impress Season upon Pupils.

Observance of the Thanksgiving season was had at many of the institutions of learning in the city yesterday. At a number of the public grade schools special exercises or programs were held. At other of the schools no formal programs were held, the children merely being awakened to the spirit of the time by special songs and stories. At a number of country schools it is probable that attention was paid to the day and that the usual excellent programs were the order.

AT WASHINGTON SCHOOL, the exercises were as follows:

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades taught by Miss Laurie, Miss Wetzel, and Miss Ward, met in general assembly Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. After the singing of a Thanksgiving hymn, Mr. Leslie of the Centenary church gave an interesting and inspiring talk, using as his theme words chosen from the declaration of independence, "Life liberty and the pursuit of happiness." His remarks were particularly adapted to his youthful listeners and were greatly enjoyed by all.

The children of primary B under Miss Landers, gave an excellent portrayal of the first Thanksgiving day, including three scenes, viz. the Pilgrims leaving England, the landing at Plymouth, the Thanksgiving feast.

Miss Tendick's and Miss Hopper's rooms combined to give the play "Hiawatha" with songs and stories.

The second grade under Miss Cox gave a pretty Thanksgiving festival.

AT MORTON SCHOOL, at the Morton school, of which Miss Elizabeth Higler, is principal, no formal program was carried out by the children, but the day was fittingly observed in the various class rooms with Pilgrim stories, with special songs and with special drawing lessons, typifying the Thanksgiving spirit.

AT THE SCHOOL FOR BLIND, Pupils of the State School for the Blind gave an entertainment at the institution Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, which was greatly enjoyed. The program was in charge of Mrs. Louise Inglis, to whom much credit is due for the success of the undertaking. Heads of the various departments represented assisted in arranging the program, which was as follows:

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Dr. S. G. Weagley

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Among the most beneficent citizens, especially of a newly settled region, is the country physician. To younger people it may seem strange that any one should locate as a doctor in the country. But, in the times of early settling in Morgan county, many of the immigrants came from rural homes in Southern states, or those from Pennsylvania, inclusive, westward, Ohio and Indiana. This made it an easy and natural thing for a young man to choose an attractive place in the country for his residence, and to add farming to his professional work.

Among those taking such a course near here was Samuel G. Weagley, M. D.

Dr. Weagley was a native of Fayette county, Kentucky, where he was born January 6, 1822, and he lived to good old age—more than three score years and ten or even four score, for he was over eighty years of age at the time of his death, December 7, 1904. And he had done well in life—from a professional and moral and humane view. He had as usual with doctors in new communities, ridden far and long in succoring the sick, and he had what was added hardship, bad roads. So bad that a motorist would give up in some half miles.

In common with his neighbor, Dr. Maud Moore, Dr. Weagley had seen much of the early life of Morgan county, and had known, probably, nearly every prominent or distinguished man or woman about here. For he was a man of pleasing manner, and he enjoyed being in things, and taking his part in affairs. This was true of politics in which he took a warm and good part, being a Republican, and a very strong Union man, in the days when not every one did all they could to sustain the government of the United States. Being a Kentuckian, he was no doubt well acquainted with Lincoln, and with War Governor Richard Yates, and Gen. Palmer and Oglesby—as well as of other political leaders, including Stephen A. Douglas. In the formation stages of society every citizen of prominence is apt to know, or be known by, the religious, social, political and business men of note—well over a whole state.

Born in Old "Kaintuck".

As already stated, Dr. Weagley came into the world in Kentucky, and came to Morgan county, Illinois, in 1832, being almost a "Snowbird". He was the son of Isaac N. and Sarah (Gregg) Weagley of Fayette county, Ky., where the elder man was a farmer. Mr. Weagley died comparatively young in the infancy of the coming doctor. Mr. Weagley was of German descent, while his wife, whose parents came from Maryland, was of English lineage. Dr. Weagley had but one brother, Abraham, who married a Miss Cassell, of Fayette county; and a sister, Maria who married Henry Higgins, of Scott county, Kentucky. The latter soon came to Jacksonville, and were the parents of Prof. Henry Higgins, well known here, and now of Winchester, Illinois. Mrs. Higgins lived to an old age, and Mr. Higgins was one of our highly respected citizens. His business was upholstery.

Marries Miss Layton

Dr. Weagley was married, July 19, 1849, to Miss Amanda C. Layton, of Scott county, Kentucky, who came to this county, with her parents at an early day. She was born March 17, 1830, and survived her husband some years. The Laytons were well known here, William T., having had much to do in Republican politics. He married Miss Melindy Boyce, still resident here. Sarah E. Layton married Andrew J. Morton, and Mary F., married Irving Dunlap, and they were the parents of M. F. Dunlap, the banker. Dr. and Mrs. Weagley were the parents of Isaac W., who died at the age of twenty-one years; S. Gregg, who married Lillie B. Davis, and had a daughter Kate; Kate L., who married Whisker M. Grant, who was at one time U. S. District Attorney of Alaska, and they had two daughters, Alice C. and Kate W. Martin H., who died at fourteen years, of age, and Ida May, who married Robert McMackin Hockenull, in Oct. 1879. They had one daughter, Virginia May, who married Mr. H. B. Henning, a leading newspaper man of Albuquerque, N. M., where she now resides. She is the mother of two bright boys, Mr. Hockenull, who died in 1915 was well known here as a banker and as a fine singer.

Later Life.

Dr. Weagley was a Mason, having membership in the Blue lodge. Samuel G. Weagley attended Illinois College, and also the Medical Department of that institution, of which Mr. Hockenull was a trustee at the time of his death. Weagley then attended lectures in the Medical College at Louisville, Ky., after which he purchased a farm from I. N. Tindall, and then bought his final homestead from W. M. Cassell. This farm of two hundred and forty acres was in Sec. 11-15-9, an attractive place fronting on the Springfield road, about nine miles east of Jacksonville.

In religious matters Dr. and Mrs. Weagley were members of the Christian church, for many years attending that known as Antioch, near their home.

Dr. Weagley, admonished by his increasing years, at last came into this city to live, taking a house on S. Church street, between College ave., and College street, where the last few years of his life were spent.

In common with many other doctors, who were also good men, Dr. Weagley gave his services in many cases without pay. One form in which he showed his patriotism during the Civil War was in giving his services to the families of Union soldiers.

The doctor was survived by his wife, for a few years. None of their children except Mrs. Hockenull are living. S. Gregg and Mrs. Grant having gone on before.

The Journal said of the Doctor, at the time of his passing: "He was honorable in all his dealings, generous to a fault, true to his friends and devoted to his family. He was public spirited and lived to do good and to advance the interests of the community in which he lived. A truly good man has gone to his reward."

THE ILLINOIS GIRL AND THE SOLDIER

The following is taken from the Houston, Texas, Chronicle, where the "Chronicles of Billie" are a daily feature:

THERE is a
LITTLE girl
IN Illinois.
THERE is a framed picture
OF a soldier
ON the piano
THAT she is playing.
AND she is lonely there tonight,
AND as her youthful fingers
PEPPER the white keys
HER thoughts wander
OUT of the window
OVER the wheat fields
AND corn fields
AND broad prairies,
COVERED with sleeping cattle,
TO big old Texas,
WHERE her soldier boy
IS encamped
IN his little dust covered
TENT of brown
BENEATH the tall pine trees
THAT wave and sigh
IN accord with her feelings.
SHE is thinking

OF the night
He came to say "goodbye."
SHE is recalling
HOW brave he looked,
AND how he vainly tried
TO laugh away her tears,
AND she knows she will never
SEE him again
UNTIL he has gone
THROUGH the baptism of fire,
FAR away in France;
AND she asks God,
SILENTLY,
THROUGH the melody,
TO bring back
HER soldier boy
TO Illinois.
SHE is thinking
OF the day at the train
WHEN the band played
"AMERICA Has Been a MOTHER," and she pressed
UPON his lips
A SWEETHEART'S last
AND sweetest kiss.
SHE hears again
THE "All Aboard!"
SHE sees the car wheels
SLOWLY turn;
SHE sees him wave
FROM the car window
WHILE her tears
FALL like rain.
AND she turns
HE has gone,
PERHAPS forever.
HE may come back
TO Illinois
WITH the Stars and Stripes
DRAPED mournfully
ABOUT him.
HE may come back
TO the home town
AND to her
WITH his face
SEARED by flame
AND the old smile
GONE from his lips
FOREVER.
HE may come back
TO his mother
WITH the arms
THAT pressed her
TO his buoyant heart
CLASPED across
HIS jacket of tan;
AND the piano strings
ARE waiting
"COME you back
TO Illinois."
AND her thoughts,
TEAR gemmed and loyal,
HOVER over that tent of brown
AND in fancy she sees him
SITTING on his cot,
GAZING into the starry
SPLENDOR
OF a Texas night.
IS he there?
NIT!
THE scoundrel is
"SOMEWHERE in Houston."
IN a porch swing,
TELLING the old, old story
TO rapt ears,
AND what's worse,
TWO of them ears

IS ON my girl's head.
AND that's why I am
SNITCHING on the soldiers.
IF you could see
HOW them Yankees
HAS took this town;
HOW us home boys
HAS been scrap-heaped;
HOW my girl is singing
"OH, Yankee! Oh, Yankee!
HOW You Can Love!"
YOU'D snitch too.
BUT the piano plays up yonder
AND her thoughts
ARE with the khaki.
AND she's liping
WITH the piano
"Come You Back
TO Illinois."
I THANK YOU.

KNITTING SONG

Wound in a knot of soft brown wool—
Oh, if you only knew!
Pride and laughter and joy and
tears,
All my prayers through the coming years,
All of my love for you.
Caught in a stitch, just my heart,
dear boy,
Ties that will hold it true!
Hundreds of stitches, and row on row,
Telling again what you surely know—
All of my pride for you.
See how I've tangled in all this wool
Something I can't undo;
You who a nation's wrongs redress,
Surely I owe you happiness,
Laughter and joy for you.

Dare I shed tears on the soft brown wool?
Were they as bright as dew,
Would they bring peace to my hero's soul?
Nay, so I knit a tiny hole,
And let all the tears slip thru.

Stop the "Snuffles"

If you want to make your children happy and comfortable, give Foley's Honey and Tar.

It is just what they ought to have for feverish colds, coughs, "snuffles," and whooping cough. It stops croup, too.

Foley's Honey and Tar tastes good and the little ones like it. It contains no morphine, chloroform or other drug that you wouldn't like to give to young children. Do not accept a substitute.

Mrs. B. H. Garrett, Schoolfield, Va., writes—
"My baby was stricken with a severe cough and cold at one month old. I have him ten to fifteen cups of Foley's Honey and Tar every three hours and it surely did help him. The bottle cost me only 25 cents."

One Good Reason for Battery Care

Every year more and more cars depend on the battery for ignition.

This is one of the greatest testimonials to the Willard dependability.

It's also a big reason for preserving that dependability by proper care of the battery.

For if the spark fails there's "nothing doing."

If the starter fails, you can use the crank. If a lamp burns out you can replace it. But if the battery fails it means, "get a rope."

It's our business to help you avoid that possibility and with Willard quality and Willard Service it's easy.

Stop in and we'll put you wise.

NOTICE TO SICK WOMEN

Positive Proof That Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound Relieves
Suffering.

Bridgeton, N.J.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sweep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt a change for the better. I took it until I was in good healthy condition.
I recommend the Pinkham remedies to all women as I have used them with such good results."—Mrs. MILFORD T. CUM-MINGS, 322 Harmony St., Penn's Grove,
N. J.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence of the excellence of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy for the distressing ills of women such as displacement, inflammation, ulceration, backache, painful periods, nervousness and kindred ailments.

Where Allen's Sole Strips Come From

Nature puts the toughest and most durable covering on the back of the steer. It's from this part of the hide that Allen's Sole Strips are cut. That's why Allen's Sole Leather wears longest and is practically waterproof.

These picked hides from range fed steers are tanned by the special time tried Allen process. Allen's Sole Strips made from these hides are carefully sorted and inspected before they leave the tanneries. The result—you can't get better sole leather than Allen's.

Over ten million shoes resoled last year with Allen's. It's easy to know you are getting Allen's. Look for the name Allen's Sole Strips embossed on each piece. Ask your shoe repair man to use Allen's when he resoles your shoes. It wears best and longest.

The Coming of the Sun Beam

The coming of the sunbeam—the new baby—should be a happy time for the expectant mother. She should help nature by the daily use of the safe, penetrating external preparation, "Mother's Friend". By its regular use the breasts are kept in good condition, the tendency to morning sickness is avoided. The abdominal muscles relax without strain when baby is born and the crisis is naturally one of less pain and danger.

To neglect the use of "Mother's Friend" for a single night is a mistake. Send or phone to the druggist for a bottle today and write for valuable free book, "Motherhood and the Baby". Address The Bradford Regulator Co., Dept. E, 209 Lamar Building, Atlanta, Ga.

How to get more wear from fine waists and lingerie

In these days of war prices, it's a necessary, yet simple, economy to make dainty fabrics wear longer. You couldn't replace your fine clothes today at anything like the prices you've paid for them.

All clothes—and especially fine fabrics—wear much longer when washed with Fels-Naptha. Because Fels-Naptha makes unnecessary the use of boiling water—so destructive to delicate fabrics.

More, it almost entirely does away with the rubbing that does more to wear out clothes than actual wear on the street.

SHERIFF GRAFF LOOKS FOR BURIED TREASURE

Digs Away a Hill Near Arenzville Looking for $87—Myron Corbridge Takes Sheriff and Deputy Norris and Joseph McGoveia On Phantom Treasure Hunt.

Sheriff Grant Graff turned into a hunter of buried treasure yesterday when he excavated a large hill in the vicinity of Arenzville to find $87, alleged to have been buried by Myron Corbridge three years ago.

Corbridge has been in jail several months and was sentenced at this term of the circuit court on the charge of horse stealing. Tuesday he imparted a secret to Sheriff Graff. This secret was to the effect that three years ago he, (Corbridge) buried $87 in coin on top of a hill at the edge of Arenzville.

So well did Corbridge tell the story that Sheriff Graff became impressed with the truth of it. Wednesday morning in company with Corbridge, Deputy Sheriff Norris, Joseph McGoveia, with Turnkey Ross Nunn as chaffer the party started for the treasure location.

Arriving at the edge of Arenzville Corbridge led the party to a top of a hill where stood a tree something like the "Lonesome Pine". The treasure was supposed to be buried by the fence post north of this tree. Spades had been provided and Corbridge started to dig. When he tired he was relieved by the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff Norris, Mr. McGoveia and Turnkey Nunn.

They dug and then they dug some more. They changed locations and picked out another tree and some more posts. They excavated nearly the entire hill but not a trace of the treasure. When they were all tired out they returned to the city. Corbridge still maintains that he buried the money but the sheriff is now of the opinion that it was all a dream. The only reminder the party has of the treasure hunt is some extremely sore muscles.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

As previously mentioned, Thanksgiving services arranged by the Ministerial Union of Jacksonville, will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at State Street church. Rev. W. W. Theobald, pastor of Brooklyn church will preach the sermon.

MARRIAGE OF FIFTY YEARS AGO SUITABLY OBSERVED

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Stevenson Celebrated Golden Wedding Wednesday—Entertained Friends During Afternoon and Evening Hours—Are Honored Residents of the County.

Among the honored residents of this community are Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Stevenson, who celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding Wednesday at their home on Prospect street. Many of their friends in Morgan and Cass counties and some visitors from more distant points came to enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson and to extend their congratulations and their best wishes for the coming years.

Mrs. Stevenson's maiden name was Miss Mary Jane Scott and she is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Scott, well known residents of Menard county. Her marriage to Mr. Stevenson was solemnized at the Scott home five miles east of Petersburg, Nov. 29, 1867. It was a Thanksgiving day wedding and in the afternoon of that day they drove to the home of Mr. Stevenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stevenson, in the vicinity of Little Indian. There a reception for relatives and friends occurred in the evening. Few of those who attended are now living but all these remember that a very severe snow storm occurred that night and that at least thirty of the guests were compelled to remain thru the night at the Stevenson home.

Established Home in Cass County Very soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson began house-keeping on a farm adjoining that of the old Stevenson homestead. For a number of years Mr. Stevenson was in partnership with his father in farming and livestock. They established a thoroughbred herd of Short-horns and were frequent exhibitors at the state fair and other livestock expositions. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson lived on the farm until the year 1888, when they became residents of Jacksonville. After remaining here for a short time they returned to the farm and stayed for a period of a year and a half, when they again came to Jacksonville and have since been residents. The land on which they lived in Cass county and which is still owned by Mr. Stevenson, was entered from the government by his grandfather, William Berry.

The Stevenson family is one of the oldest in Cass and Morgan counties. William Stevenson settled near Little Indian in 1829, coming to that locality from Kentucky, which had been the family home almost from the beginning of the republic. William Stevenson married Frances Berry and they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary thirty-one years ago, so the celebration yesterday was the next in succession, and it is unusual indeed, for one golden wedding to follow another in the same family. Mr. Stevenson, who was held high in regard thru a long life, lived to the age of ninety-five years, his death occurring nine years since.

When Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Stevenson were married the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Strain, of Virginia. Mrs. Stevenson had been his pupil at a school in North Sangamon. The teacher and pupil became friends at that time and after he entered the ministry it was natural that he was called upon to officiate at the Stevenson wedding. Mrs. Stevenson taught school herself for a time prior to her marriage.

Active in Church Affairs Thru all their married life Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson have been interested in church affairs. Mr. Stevenson was an elder in the Presbyterian church at Virginia for twenty-eight years and he has served as an elder continuously at Westminster church during all his residence in Jacksonville. Mrs. Stevenson has taken especial interest in the missionary movement and in Virginia and here she has been a faithful worker. Her activity has not been limited to the local society, but she has been for a long period prominently identified with the work of the Presbyterian society. In 1914 Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson were delegates to the Presbyterian church general assembly which met in Chicago. Mrs. Stevenson attended the Presbyterian society and Mr. Stevenson serving as commissioner in the assembly.

Mr. Stevenson is a veteran of the Civil war. He enlisted in Co. B of the 114th Illinois at Virginia in 1862. His uncle, Benjamin Berry, was captain of the company and it is related that the captain had five nephews in his command. Mr. Stevenson served thru the siege of Vicksburg and the battles of Jackson, Miss., and Champion Hill, and because of ill health left the army after a service of a year and a half. This bride and groom of fifty years have one son, Harry Stevenson, who with his wife and son, William Robert Day Stevenson, are living on the home farm in the Little Indian neighborhood. One daughter, Mrs. Mae Stevenson Mackie, died three years ago. Mrs. Stevenson has three sisters, Misses Lizzie and Flora Scott, living at Monticello, and Mrs. Louisa Constant, living in the state of Washington; and two brothers, Samuel Scott, living

The first regular drill of the home guard was held at Armory Hall Wednesday evening with about one hundred in line. The enthusiasm shown by the men is worthy of note and indicative of a successful campaign here. Everybody had lots of "pep" and the way the "rookies" maneuvered under the direction of Major Vickery, Lieut. James and Gus Walters showed that their hearts were in the work and that they were there to learn and to obey orders. It was voted to drill on Monday nights hereafter and the second drill of the guard will be held at Armory Hall next Monday night.

ELECTRIC KITE SAID TO PRODUCE RAINFALL

Device Invented in Melbourne is Acutely Needed in This City Now.

The following dispatch from Melbourne is respectfully called to the attention of the Jacksonville city council. Anyone who inspects Morgan lake these days and sees that it does not hold a day's supply of water will agree that an "electric kite" or some other new means of water supply is urgently needed here now.

"The director of the radio telegraph department of the commonwealth of Australia has invented an electrical device for increasing the rainfall, and thus far his experiments have been remarkably successful. He filled a dam in the desert country with 16,800,000 gallons in three months. His device is a huge kite supplied with electricity. These kites are let up on galvanized flexible wire and they go to an altitude of between 4,000 and 6,000. The negative current is taken from the earth by means of a terminal which is well grounded."

MRS. LAURA L. BREEN DIED SUDDENLY

Former Morgan County Resident Passed Away at Paola, Kans., Nov. 23—Funeral Services Conducted Sunday.

Brief mention was made recently of the death of Mrs. Laura L. Breen, which occurred at her home in Paola, Kans., Nov. 23. Henry E. Sibert, son of the deceased, and H. H. Massey, a brother, both of this city, went to Paola to be present at the funeral services, which were held from the home Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Breen was for many years a resident of Morgan county and had many friends here who were grieved to hear of her sudden death.

Laura L. Massey was born Oct. 2nd, 1837, at Jacksonville, Ill., and died Nov. 23rd, 1917, at Paola, Kans. She was the second daughter of H. H. Massey, Sr., and resided near Jacksonville until 1871 when she moved to Paola, Kans., and settled on the farm where she has since continuously resided.

In 1861 she was married to Jeremiah Sibert, Jr., who died in 1865. In 1871 she was married to George W. Breen, who died in 1911, having been an invalid during his later years. She was the mother of eight children, of whom three survive, Henry E. Sibert of Jacksonville; Charles A. Sibert of Fruitport, Mich.; and Mary M. Breen of Paola, Kans. She is also survived by one brother, H. H. Massey, of Jacksonville.

For about ten years Mrs. Breen has been totally blind, but in spite of this affliction, she had busied herself to a remarkable degree with household duties, performing her usual household work on the morning of her death. At about 10 o'clock she lay down for a rest and in a few minutes she went to sleep and never awakened, passing away at about 10:30 o'clock. Her mental powers had never shown the slightest evidence of dimming, despite her eighty years.

In early life Mrs. Breen united with the Westminster Presbyterian church. Her patience and fortitude, and her cheerful and uncomplaining acceptance of the deep afflictions laid upon her, together with the beautiful devotion of her daughter, who has tenderly watched over and cared for her during her declining years, have been an inspiring lesson to all privileged to know them. Her peaceful, quiet passing to the beyond without the sickness and suffering usually attendant upon a death bed, was a wonderful instance of the mercy of the God, in whom Mrs. Breen had always placed an implicit trust.
